PANDEMIC RELIEF

"The Idaho Office of Emergency Management has relied heavily on the United Way of Treasure Valley (UWTV) throughout the pandemic. The speed at which UWTV implemented service to our vulnerable populations and health care providers was nothing short of incredible ... Our partnership with UWTV during the COVID-19 has been absolutely critical to the State's ability to capture, account for, and distribute donated money and Personal Protective Equipment to those who need it most in Idaho."

– Chris Volmer, Idaho Office of Emergency Management
